

PROGRAMME

09.30: Registration Opens

09.50: Welcome and Opening Comments

10.00 – 11.15: Session 1 – Britain c. 300-800 AD

10.00-10.30: Lee Toone: The London Mint of the Tetrarchy (Romano-British)

10.30-11.00: Dr. Rory Naismith: The North Sea world

11.00-11.30: Break

11.30-12.30: Session 2 – Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Viking, c.800-1100. The Birth of England - Money, Mints and Monarchs

Opening comment: Dr Stewart Lyon

11.30-12.00: Hugh Pagan: Coinage in Southern and Midland England after 939 : some thoughts and suggestions

12.00-12.30: Johanne Porter. University of East Anglia: The Anglo-Viking Coinage of East Anglia: Reflections on the St Edmund Series

12.30-1.30: Lunch

1.30 – 2.30: Session 3 – The British Isles, c.1100-1550. Coinage, Management and Circulation

1.30-2.00: Dr Martin Allen, The Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge: Coinage in the British Isles: some new discoveries

2.00-2.30: Dr Murray Andrews, University College, London: Hoarding medieval coins: new insights from archaeology

2.30-2.50: Break

2.50-4.30: Session 4 - Scottish Coinage, c.1140-1707. Interpretation and Resources

2.50-3.20: Nick Holmes, Research Associate, National Museum of Scotland: The recording and interpretation of Scottish Mediaeval coin hoards

3.20-3.50: Andrew Burnett, The British Museum: Before Ian Stewartby - Numismatists in Scotland, 1600-1750

3.50-4.20: Dr Donal Bateson FSA, The Hunterian Museum, the University of Glasgow: The Lord Stewartby Collection of Scottish Coins

4.20-4.30: William MacKay FSA: Publication of the Lord Stewartby Collection; an Update

4.30-5.00: Panel Discussion: After Lord Stewartby, looking to the future – key areas emerging for scholarship

5.00-5.15 Closing Comments